Wins Prize In Competition

Cecil Hicox was the fortunate winner of $5.00 for the three best songs marketed on Tuesday following the Swine Club, Feeding and Judging Competition. The prize was a special given by J. W. Stuart, Secretary of the Agricultural Society.

Space and time will not permit a detailed report of the afternoon's competition, but we hope to give a report, next week. In the mean time we might say it was most gratifying to all interested to see the number from a dance society interested to attend and by their presence assist in making the day a success.

POINTED QUESTIONS

Answered from the Word of God.

Question No. 1.
"How May I Know That There is a God?"

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the earth sheweth forth his handiwork."

"Let the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled; who among them can declare this, and show us former things? Let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified, or let them hear and say, I am He: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me."

"And the Word was made flesh, and the glory was seen by all eyes, the glory that was of the Father) full of grace and truth."

"No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten of the Father, He hath declared Him."

"He that hath seen me hath seen the Father."

"Because thou hast seen me, and believe: blessed are they that have not seen, yet have believed."

"For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and God head; so they are without excuse."

"But these things are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

This is the beginning of a series of vital questions answered directly from the Word of God. Out them out and paste in a little note book for future reference.

Royal Bank of Canada Reported Closing Here Soon

Possibly the most surprising bit of gossip going around during the past week has reference to our local financial institutions, that the Royal Bank at this point will close its doors and also that its deposits and other local business will be handed over to the Bank of Montreal as from the end of the current month. In an interview with Mr. O'Callaghan we learned that similar steps are being taken at various points in the West, sometimes one bank, sometimes another, but with a view to curtail wherever possible with one inconveniently patroned and the public generally. The Royal Bank has been established at Wainwright for about twenty five years. Records of its early history were destroyed in the fire of 1929, come truly authentic data on its opening and personnel are difficult to obtain. On thing is sure, that such an institution closing down in our town will be received with regret by community builders. As an institution it will be missed, and also its staff in the various undertakings of our town.

We understand that the Bank at Russell, Manitoba, with Mr. Plumton manager, has also closed its doors.

"Sitting Pretty" at Elite Theatre on Saturday

A fairly entertaining comedy, with music. Although it is not as elaborate as some other musical pictures that have been shown recently it holds the interest throughout because of the good performances, the comedy, and also the tinsel melodrama that are sung during the unfolding of the story. There is just one elaborate dance number and this comes in the closing scenes when a motion picture is being shot and Ginger Rogers sings a song while the girls dance. There are several funny situations, one of the funniest being that in which Oakie and Haley try to sell their talents to Gregory Ratoe, an agent. As an entertainment in the situation in which Oakie and Haley, both drunk, burst into a fashionable drawing room where a musical number is being played. Human interest is aroused by the friendship Haley shows for Oakie, even to the point of giving up a position so as not to embarrass Oakie, who has been discharged.

The story revolves around Oakie and Haley, two song writers who hitch hike their way to Hollywood from New York. At one of their stops they try to cash a check with Ginger Rogers, owner of a lunch room; they do not know that the check is no good or that Lee man was had given it to them as a joke, and whose passion was to hand out checks. They arrive in Hollywood and soon Ginger arrives with her little brother. Since they are broke they give together and try to make the best of things. Through cleverness Oakie and Haley are able to see a motion picture producer and prove to him that they have talent. They are making good money now but Oakie becomes a member of Thelma Todd, an actress, and neglects his work for her. He is discharged and Haley refuses to work with him so he, too, is discharged. Oakie and Haley are paid again for Oakie had given up the ma at Haley's instance. Through him they meet another producer and are engaged by him to write songs. Ginger is engaged as a star in the picture for which the boys are writing the music. Ginger and Haley are married.

The plot was adopted from a story suggested by Nina Wilcox Putnam. It was directed by Harry Joe Brown. In the cast are Gregory Ratoe, Lew Colby, Harry Revel, Jerry Tucker and others.

Drop is Forecast in Wheat Stocks

REGINA, Nov. 13.—The outlook for Canada working off her large wheat carryover and reducing it to normal proportions during the present crop year are fairly bright.

John I. McFarland, general manager of the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers limited, stated Monday before Saskatchewan wheat pool delegates.

Contrasted with the world picture a year ago he found some ground for optimism at the present time.

Apart from Australia and Argentina, whose shipments were likely to be limited by the prospect of below average harvests from their present source of supplies during the balance of 1934-1935.

Some Major Role
On the basis of estimates of world requirements, he saw no reason why Canada should not play a major role in international wheat trade in the months ahead and ship heavily without demoralizing the price structure in the process.

Mr. McFarland drew attention to the fact that the United States had hit by two disastrous crops in succession, was not only out of the export field but was already proving a market for Canadian low grade wheats for feed also drums and maling barley. Further, that country might be expected to take quite substantial quantities of high grade Canadian wheat for milling purposes.

SHOW INCREASE IN THE EARNINGS OF RAILWAYS

Ottawa.—Improvement in railway earnings, constantly mounting national revenues, and savings through lowered interest rates on government borrowings, have combined to paint a much brighter picture of more pleasant reading of the budget to be presented at the next session of parliament.

It had been estimated gross earnings of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific for the current calendar year will show an improvement of $30,000,000 over last year and that the net betterment of the Canadian National alone will be around $9,000,000. That would mean the railway deficit down to around $47,000,000 this year as compared with $56,000,000 last year.

National revenues were shown, in figures published, to be some $26,000,000 better for the first seven months of the fiscal year as compared with last year with the possibility that the improvement for the year will go to nearly $50,000,000.

There had been some increase also in expenditures compared with the same period last year, because of additions to the National debt and increased obligations under the old age pensions scheme, but this advance has been in no way commensurate with the improved revenues, leaving it almost a certainty that there would be a surplus on ordinary account at the end of the fiscal year.

Canada Makes Greatest Recovery

Although business becomes slightly unsettled over election talk, Toronto.—Officials of the Babson statistical organization at a "clients' conference" here declared Canada had made the greatest recovery from the depression of any country. It was noted that business had become slightly unsettled because of general election talk. Creighton J. Hill, director of the Babson Canadian department, predicted there would be no sweeping program of economic recovery in the Dominion, as Canada would continue to allow the United States to undertake large scale economic experiments.

Praises Churchill Elevator

Sea Captain Says Equipment Second To None In The World. Montreal.—Churchill has an elevator which for efficiency and equipment is second to none in the world, Captain Arnold Taylor stated here recently. "Capt. Taylor is master of the S.S. Alma Dawson, which carried grain from the northern Manitoba seaport during the past summer. Russian enterprise, with its keenness to pick the brains of the rest of the world, had not equipped her most up-to-date ports with any grain elevators as good as that at Churchill, Captain Taylor said.

He paid special tribute to George Hill, resident engineer at Churchill.

Saskatchewan Oil Find. Antigonish, N.S.—Dr. Donald F. MacDonald, associate professor of geology at St. Francis Xavier University and former United States government expert, has been granted leave of absence to report on a new discovery of oil in central Saskatchewan. He will leave shortly for the west, planning to return to the university within a month.

Printing Voters' Lists. Ottawa.—One of its biggest undertakings—the printing of voters' lists, comprising more than 6,000,000 names—will be commenced next month by the government printing bureau. There will be 3,000,000 more if the names are re-arranged by consecutive street numbers, it was stated.

Retires After Long Service. Ottawa.—A long and distinguished career in the civil service of Canada was "closed" by the retirement on superannuation of R. W. Bredner, C.M.G., for many years commissioner of customs and for the past year tariff adviser to the department of finance. Mr. Bredner was born in Atholstan, Que., 69 years ago.

Set A Precedent. Amherstburg, Ont.—A Canadian girl, Miss Ethel L. Alexander, whose father, J. H. Alexander, is a prominent resident of Amherstburg, Ontario, set a precedent when she became a member of a board of education in British Honduras.

Winnipeg Bread War

Chain Stores Are Blamed For Conditions In Industry. Winnipeg.—Blaming chain stores for conditions in the baking industry which have led to a "bread war" in Winnipeg, the Retail Merchants' Association submitted a brief to Premier John Bracken urging that immediate action be taken to remedy the situation.

Enforcement of rules and regulations now on statute by labor and health departments, it contended, would do much to alleviate the bakers' troubles and enable independent bakers to remain in business.

The brief referred to an order-in-council passed in Alberta appointing a deputy minister to investigate the Alberta baking industry, and the fact bakers there have submitted a code for approval so they could come under the "Trades and Industries Act." The association charged chain stores would not permit retail shops to sell bread at the same prices as the chains quoted, and consistently undercut prices. As a result, wages in bakeries dropped until "men worked 14 and 16 hours daily for as little as $10 a month. Quality of bread likewise suffered and in some instances was practically unfit for human consumption."

Bread prices in Winnipeg were as low as two loaves for five cents, and reports came from points in the district of drastic cuts in prices.

Arms Situation Difficult

Premier MacDonald Urges License Plan To Solve Problem. Southampton, Eng.—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald reiterated his conviction that the only way to solve the disarmament problem is to develop an international licensing system for manufacture of arms in a speech at Southampton.

In emphatic terms he expressed his adherence to the cause of peace while "poling" out the difficulties confronting the government in dealing with the armaments question.

The government was zealously pursuing a peace policy, he said, but the foreign secretary (Sir John Simon) had to sit around tables with peace-loving people, but with representatives who "do not share our views and have grievances."

"You can pipe but if they don't want to dance you cannot compel them," he said, adding he would accept no defeat in his efforts to advance peace.

Identifies Meisner

John Labatt, London Brewer, Declares Meisner One Of Kidnappers. London, Ont.—John S. Labatt, London brewer, identified David Meisner as one of three men who kidnapped him on a lonely western Ontario road last August and held him for almost 60 hours before releasing him "near Toronto."

Labatt was the first witness called at the preliminary hearing of Meisner conducted by Magistrate C. W. Hawkshaw.

Meisner was committed for trial at the next assizes.

Fog Cost Three Lives

Transportation Paralyzed In Some Sections Of United Kingdom. London.—A thick fog which cost three lives and spread generally throughout the United Kingdom, paralyzed transportation in some sections.

London and the area to the south were clear, but the country westward to Bristol and northward to Glasgow was thickly smothered.

A train killed two railway guards who were unloading race horses near Derby, while a motorcyclist died after a collision at Kettering. Six fishing vessels collided off Lowestoft and fog held ships at Liverpool, while the Caledonia from New York was forced to wait at Greenock before proceeding to Glasgow. Shipping in the Bristol channel, on the Mersey river and the River Clyde did not move and boats for Dublin and Belfast were held up.

Labor Legislation

Proposed Changes Approved By The Ontario Cabinet.

Toronto.—Proposed labor legislation of Hon. A. W. Robb, Ontario attorney-general and minister of labor, has been approved by the cabinet and will be submitted to the caucus of Ontario Liberals here this week, Premier Mitchell P. Hepburn announced after a lengthy cabinet session.

The premier in announcing the cabinet's decision, insisted the legislation had been incorrectly termed "wages." He associated that name with price-fixing in the United States. Ontario's legislation has nothing to do with price-fixing, Mr. Hepburn stated, but is aimed to improve the social standard of the worker and combat cut-throat competition in industry. The element of compulsion will be absent.

TO PREPARE FOR VOTING ON THE SAAR QUESTION

Geneva.—With Europe's political atmosphere disturbed by reports German Nazis are planning to seize the Saar by force and French preparations to forestall any such move, the League of Nations council will meet Nov. 21 to complete arrangements for the Saar plebiscite.

Tension prevailing during recent weeks has lessened, however, during the past few days as result of statements by German authorities that no such move is being prepared and disclaimers by the French that they intend to send troops into the region.

Residents of the rich Saar basin, governed since the treaty of Versailles by the league, vote Jan. 13 to remain under the league, go back to Germany or join France.

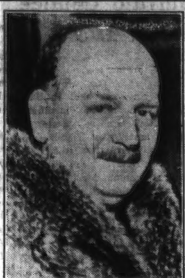

German circles at Geneva expressed the belief the disarmament situation, insofar as Germany is concerned, may be clarified after the plebiscite, which, it is agreed here, will remove a serious problem from the continent's political life.

The Germans, however, insist there must be recognition of their right to equality in arms before they return to the disarmament conference.

The council's chief task at its meeting here will be to devise ways of interpreting the will of the voters as expressed at the plebiscite.

There is no treaty provision which declares a majority vote of the inhabitants will decide the issue for the territory as a whole. If certain electoral districts vote overwhelmingly for league trusteeship or annexation to France, it is believed juridically possible for the council to allocate these regions in accordance with the will of the voters.

NEW PREMIER OF FRANCE

Pierre Etienne Flandin, erstwhile Minister of Public Works, who succeeds "Papa" Doumergue as Prime Minister of France, Six-foot-six in height the new Premier needed only 10 hours to put together the pieces of the Cabinet wrecked by Edouard Herriot's radical Socialists.

Remains House Leader

Hon. George S. Henry Endorsed By Ontario Conservatives.

Toronto.—Hon. George S. Henry, former premier, was endorsed as house leader for the Conservative opposition at the next legislature session by Conservative members in caucus here. The members recommended a convention to choose a leader immediately after the session to consider party leadership and policy.

Karl K. Homuth, former Conservative member for South Waterloo, had called on Mr. Henry to resign and to summon a convention to choose a new leader. After the caucus, Mr. Homuth declared himself satisfied with the results and maintained he had "won the fight."

"I feel that the course I have taken was well worthwhile," Mr. Homuth said. "After the session is over the reorganization of the party as a whole can take place."

The members also recommended all Conservative candidates at the June 10 provincial election be summoned into conference with Mr. Henry and his legislature followers before the session convenes. The conference would be for the purpose of considering party questions and advice to members. Mr. Henry declared this would be done.

Naval Conversations

Britain Makes Attempt To Iron Out Some Of The Difficulties.

London.—Reliable reports said Great Britain tried without success to induce the United States representatives at two-power naval conversations here to abandon their opposition to compromise proposals put forward by the British delegation.

A lengthy surprise conference at which the British delegates further explained their plan—which would, it is understood, grant Japan naval equality in name but not in fact—failed to shake the Americans' insistence on continuance of the basic principles of the Washington and London naval treaties.

The British representatives had asked for the meeting and in its course, it was learned, they asked many questions trying to get the United States delegates to offer substitute compromise proposals. All of these the Americans evaded.

Was War Nurse

Montreal.—Miss Harriet Edith Carman, one of the most distinguished of Canadian overseas nurses, died in hospital here after a brief illness. Miss Carman, who went overseas with the McGill hospital unit and served for nearly five years in military hospitals, being decorated for her services, was born in Winnipeg.

An Irish Republic

Says German Steamers Unloading Cargoes At Irish Ports.

London.—"Within a very few months President Eamon de Valera will be in a position to declare an Irish republic—both de jure and de facto," declared John Morgan, professor of constitutional law at London University, at a meeting of Irish loyalists here.

The meeting passed a resolution calling on the British government to declare its intentions in regard to "repeated violations" of the Anglo-Irish treaty, outstanding of which is the non-payment of land annuities that led to the tariff war between Britain and the Irish Free State.

Prof. Morgan said "the so-called treaty" was legally dead. The Dublin legislature had abolished four of its most important clauses, embodying safeguards vital to maintenance of the British connection. He said loyalist friends in Ireland had told him that German steamers were unloading cargoes at Irish ports with the greatest secrecy, and he would leave his hearers to guess what those cargoes contained.

Farm Club Movement

Thirty-Two Teams To Compete At Royal Winter Fair.

Toronto.—Thirty-two club teams of two members each will compete in livestock and field crop projects at the Royal Winter fair here this week. The competition is that of the national club contests, held in conjunction with the boys' and girls' farm club movement.

Only two girls are included in the teams coming to Toronto this year. They are Bernice Horthorn, of the Sussex Poultry Club, Sussex, N.B., and Louise McDermott, of the Hazelridge Poultry Club, Hazelridge, Man.

WILL MEET TO PLAN CHANGE IN WHEAT QUOTA

London.—The ultimate fate of international efforts to regulate the export of wheat may be at stake when the international wheat advisory committee meets again at Budapest, Hungary, this week.

Although it is a committee meeting, representatives of all 21 signatories to the world wheat pact signed in London in August, 1933, are expected to be on hand.

The cardinals question that will arise comprise the following: Extension of the wheat agreement from July 31, 1935 (when they formally expire) to July 31, 1937.

Provision for continuation of the efforts to adjust wheat supply to demand and thus dispose of the long-standing surplus.

Readjustments of the principle upon which wheat export quotas for the principal exporters are calculated.

Subdivision of the crop year quotas into quarterly periods, instead of one 12-month quota as at present.

The creation of a system of quota reserves designed to meet special contingencies, and impart greater flexibility to the working of the wheat agreement.

The proposed changes in the export quota system affect the working of the whole wheat agreement. hitherto, the world demand for imported wheat and flour has been divided among the chief exporting countries, and their export quotas fixed accordingly.

The Argentine's exports during the first crop year of the pact, ending last July 31, exceeding her quota by nearly 40,000,000 bushels. She continued heavy shipments as a result of which fixing of quotas for the present crop year was deferred until the meeting next week instead of being settled in August.

It is to meet the possible recurrence of such a contingency, forced by higher production than estimated, that the system of quota reserves is proposed. The world demand for the present crop year ending next July is estimated at 600,000,000 bushels. Basic export quotas will, it is proposed, be again distributed on a pro rata basis.

But from the basic quotas, under the new plan, five per cent, in each case would be set aside as a reserve. These would be utilized to meet the export needs of countries with more than average yields per acre as against countries with under-average yields.

It is hoped, furthermore, that institution of quarterly instead of annual quotas will tend to make the whole system of regulated exports more workable.

SURPLUS GRAIN SUPPLIES BEING SOLD TO U. S.

Winnipeg.—Sale of 600,000 bushels of low-grade Canadian wheat for animal feed in the United States was confirmed by Winnipeg grain exporters, marking a new development in disposal of Western Canada's surplus grain supplies.

The total shipment was estimated to be worth $380,000, to a Fort William basin, with the farmers receiving about $250,000 when allowance for freight rates, commissions, etc., are made.

Previously, amber durum wheat had been purchased by United States interests for macaroni purposes as well as a limited amount of hard red spring wheat for bread making. The total of three grains exported to the United States since August 1, beginning of the new crop year, was estimated at 10,000,000 bushels.

The recent sales of low-grade wheat for animal feed were the first really to be negotiated although several inquiries had been made previously. Frost-damaged wheat from the prairies made up the shipments, with most of it coming from northern Alberta, and the Peace River block in northern Alberta.

Calgary.—Shipments of Alberta feed in large quantities to drouth areas in the United States are expected to start as soon as prospective purchasers arrange a satisfactory rail rate.

Hon. George Hoadley, minister of trade and industry, stated here that all details of the sale to the United States purchasers had been arranged, and that negotiations with rail companies regarding freight rates were under way in the south.

War On Insect Pests

Will Continue Uneasing Fight On West Front.

Ottawa.—Plans for the continuation of the unceasing war on insect pests on a front extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific will be threshed out at a conference here on Nov. 26. Then all the officers in charge of the Dominion government's entomological department of agriculture will gather here to review the work done on insect control in the past few years and discuss plans for the future.

The last conference of this kind was held seven years ago and the committee is expected to have as important bearing on future policy. The officers who will come from various parts of Canada are those who have charge of the field work of the entomological branch of the department of agriculture, and they will meet in various groups with the headquarters staff here.

Grasshopper control on the prairie provinces will be an important matter under discussion. The last few years have been difficult ones for the officials fighting the grasshoppers and preliminary reports from field officers indicate next year will find the "hoppers" again attacking western grain fields in large numbers.

Appoint Debt Boards

Boards For Saskatchewan And Alberta, the West Vn.

Ottawa.—Provincial boards of review under the Farmers Creditors Arrangement Act were appointed by cabinet council for Alberta and Saskatchewan, but no announcement of their composition was available pending completion of the orders by the governor-general.

These boards, the duties of which will be to arrange composition of farmers' debts when official receivers find themselves unable to reach a compromise acceptable to both debtor and creditor, will be established in each province. They have now been practically completed for the three prairie provinces, where the work under the act has been heaviest.

Air Mail Plane Crash

Sydney, Australia.—Four persons, three members of the crew and one passenger, were killed when an Imperial Airways air mail plane crashed 29 miles from Long Reach, Queensland. Long Reach is approximately 300 miles northwest of Brisbane. The cause of the crash was not immediately known.

Majority Against Lottery Bill. London.—The government's betting and lottery bill, which forbids sale of tickets and publication of any news about lotteries and sweepstakes, was given third and final reading by the House of Commons. The vote was 206 to 38. The bill will now go to the house of lords.

Above is the architect's conception of the new Administration Building for the Dominion Experimental Farms, which is to be erected at the Central Experimental Farms at Ottawa.

Telling the World

The front cover of this month's Oliver Shield honors Mr. Frank W. Fish, one of the leaders among all Canadian Oliver dealers. He sells Oliver Farm equipment the full line and you can't pass this place of business without being made thoroughly conversant with that fact!

A. W. Phillips (Edmonton Alberta Branch Manager) tells us that there are several mighty good reasons why Frank Fish does a fine volume of business out of the town of Wainwright, Alberta, year after year. Some of them are listed briefly below:

1. He does a great deal of active canvassing.
2. He is on a basis of friendly understanding with practically every farmer in his trade territory.
3. He knows the machines he sells how to set them up and adjust them for most satisfactory service.
4. He stocks a reasonable assortment of tools.
5. He maintains adequate stocks of replacement parts.
6. He advertises.

It is a real pleasure to enter Mr. Fish's store. It is clean and neat, tools are attractively displayed, parts and repairs are stocked and blined so that locating a needed part is but the matter of a moment's time.

A farmer can't get anywhere near the store without his eyes being lit either directly toward one or the other of several attractive signs painted on the front and side walls. If he is thinking about buying farm machinery he goes to the Frank Fish store first, and even when he isn't thinking particularly about buying he just naturally drops in anyway because he knows that he will receive a friendly welcome.

We can't help but believe that the six planks in Mr. Fish's sales platform are mighty sound ones for any implement dealer to follow. To arrive at the point of real friendship with farmers you have to call on them and get to know them. That is why he canvasses. He secures the confidence of customers because he really does know the machines he sells. By stocking sample tools he is usually in a position to make extra prompt delivery which is often times a big help to the man who needs the machine. Ability to supply repairs promptly also gains confidence among buyers and advertising keeps them "never for getting" that what they need they can get at the Wainwright Oliver Dealer's store.

Finally, turn back once again to the front cover and notice the slogan on the right side wall of the building, just under the big Oliver Shield. "Oliverize Now!" says Frank Fish, and that's not a bad idea for all Oliver Dealers to promote. During the past several years old machinery has done its bit, and now and the time is just about right for all enterprising farmers to Oliverize.

School Teacher's Convention Held Here

An extensive report of the teacher's convention was crowded from our columns last week, but as a number of our readers may be interested, we are printing the following report.

Wainwright inspectorate teachers numbering possibly one hundred and fifty gathered in the I.O.O.F. hall on Thursday morning and during two days discussed many problems which should benefit these trustees of the future men and women of our business world.

Miss L. Mabey, of Wainwright, occupied the chair, and after the singing of "O Canada" a cordial welcome was extended to the visitors on behalf of the town and district by Mr. W. Huntingford, president of the Board of Trade, and on behalf of the Wainwright School Board by Mrs. H. L. Courcier, the reply to the report of these felicitations being delivered by Mr. George Taylor, of Fabyan school district.

Inspector L. Good and Secretary O. W. Murray were truly a busy pair in seeing that everything went off like clockwork, and it was not long before the extensive programme was under way.

During the first morning, the matter of the annual school musical festival was most thoroughly discussed from all angles, Mr. Good giving a very lucid explanation on several features of this affair, and finally it was decided that for the future, contestants in the festival will compete first at classroom centres in the inspectorate, and the winners at those meetings will form the nucleus of entries from each district for the final contest in Wainwright each year. Arrangements for these are being left in the hands of an unassuming appointed sponsor for the purpose.

Before the lunch adjournment, Mr. Martin, of Lina gave an interesting address on matters connected with the A. T. A. and its work among the teaching profession.

In an address on "Music in the schools" which opened the afternoon session on Thursday, Mr. Vernon Barford, F.R.C.O., of Edmonton, held the close attention of an audience which literally crowded the hall to the doors. In his talk he used a number of young boys running in and out, up to 17 years, and in addition to musical demonstrations to bring out the points of Mr. Barford's address, these youngsters sang several numbers in a splendid style.

Dr. R. C. Wallace, president of the university of Alberta, in a lengthy yet whimsical, pleasant and engaging talk, spoke regarding the impressions which could be left on the minds and characters of the pupils in all schools by the correct study of the individual on the part of the teacher, and in reminding us of his own sixty years' experience, he stated that as far as he could remember on five of possibly nearly 50 pupils with whom he had studied as late as his last impression on himself which he felt should be the aim of all who were engaged in the teaching profession.

His address was listened to with great attention, and without doubt the large crowd of listeners must have found it easy to gain a vast amount of valuable knowledge from his talk.

The sessions which continued on Friday were given over in the main to matters of purely scholastic and mental and a number of bright and snappy papers were read by teachers from a number of points in the inspectorate and at the close of each discussion of the merits and other wise of points advocated was freely indulged in, the most noted teacher's plan of discussion being a happy menu of exchange of ideas.

Among those responsible for these were Mr. J. Memphis Peterson S.D.; Mr. John Overbo Lake Vornon; Miss E. Bullock, McEntery; and Miss E. Rankin Wainwright (these being in the senior section); and Miss M. Dixon Pansy; Mr. H. Burpee Ronyun Mrs. E. A. Smith Harstley; and Miss E. A. Love Wainwright (in the junior section).

Before the adjournment of the convention on Friday afternoon the officers of the association for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Hon. Pres.—Hon. Fernie Baker. Pres.—Mr. R. L. Martin, Irma. Sec. Treas.—Mr. J. R. Hemphill, Hughenden.

Executive Com.—Mr. John Overbo B.A. Kinsella.
Miss E. Bullock Edgerton.
Mr. J. Mulholland, Popovst.

Little Journeys in Science

BACTERIA

By Gordon H. GUEST, M.A.

When the microscope was invented a new field of science known as bacteriology, was opened up. Bacteria is the name given to a large group of plant organisms of minute size. Some of these have a rod-like appearance, some are spherical, and some look like trailing blue filaments. The rod-like type are called bacilli, and it requires twenty-five thousand of them placed end to end to occupy one inch of space.

Bacteria reproduce by the division of their bodies, one rod or sphere changing with great rapidity into two. The bacilli which bring about the fermentation of hay, double their length and divide every half hour.

Many kinds of bacteria are killed by light while others cannot withstand great extremes of heat and cold. A few varieties, however, exist in a dormant state at 272 degrees below zero. A temperature of 87 degrees above zero destroys most bacteria, but some are known to live in hot springs where the temperature is 104 degrees.

Because they are plants bacteria have no stomachs, and so they do not absorb undigested food. They therefore go into their food. When they have penetrated into the material which they are going to use for food, they give off chemicals which change the material into a form in which it can be absorbed. Thus bacteria bring about the decomposition of dead plants and animals. They also surely the bacteria bring about complete decomposition of the dead material into compounds including such important substances as carbon dioxide and ammonia. If it were not for this process of destruction all living things on the earth would soon perish, because the chemical elements upon which life depends would be locked up in dead plants and animals. Thus the chemical elements necessary to life are always travelling in a circle. Matter comes from the earth, returns to the earth and is used over and over again. If the circle is ever broken all life would stop. Bacteria play an important part in keeping this vital circle unbroken.

A Product Of Proved Merit

Vicks VapoRub For Preventing Colds, Meets With Wonderful Success

Windsor, Ont.—An intensive newspaper advertising campaign introducing Vicks VapoRub, the new aid in preventing colds, has just started in Western Canada. Introduced in Ontario last year, and in the United States two years before, VapoRub immediately became immensely popular.

Newspapers were selected as the medium for the introduction of VapoRub because of the excellent results they had produced for Vicks VapoRub, according to the announcement.

For many years VapoRub has been the world's most extensively used cold remedy—the family standby for treating colds in 68 countries. Vicks VapoRub has been the most successful of the tremendous VapoRub sales—over 26,000,000 jars last year—to honest consumers of this advertising, backing a product of proved merit.

Similar international success is being achieved now by Vicks VapoRub—companion to VapoRub in Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. Vicks Chemists and medical consultants developed the formula for Vicks VapoRub after years of clinical research. It is especially designed for nose and throat, where most colds start.

Based on a new idea for preventing colds—by aiding Nature's own cold-fighting functions in the nose—VapoRub is introduced as "the ideal companion to Vicks VapoRub, the modern external method of treating colds." Together with certain simple rules of health, these two preparations form Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. Records of thousands of clinical tests—conducted over a period of two years under medical supervision—indicate that Vicks Plan greatly reduced the number, duration and dangers of colds.

In accordance with the Vicks Company's policy for nearly 30 years, VapoRub and VapoRub will be heavily advertised in newspapers throughout the season. They will also be backed by the distribution of thousands of samples through drug stores in the Dominion.

Since 1929, Vicks has steadily increased its advertising while other companies were drastically curtailing theirs or eliminating it entirely. And during these five turbulent years, sales of Vicks products have increased from 24,000,000 to over 63,000,000 packages annually, despite adverse business conditions.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

NOVEMBER 25

THE CHRISTIAN STEWARD

Golden text: "Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will therefore set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Matthew 25:21.

Lesson: Matthew 25:14-30.
Devotional Reading: Malachi 3:7-12.

Explanations And Comments

The Charge to the Stewards, verses 14, 15. Jesus was talking with his disciples about the Kingdom of Heaven, and he began an illuminating parable by saying that the situation was comparable to that of a man who, being able to go into another country, called his servants and delivered to them his goods. A man of means in the time of Christ on leaving home for a long period would have trusted servants to whom he could hand over the conduct of his affairs, the tillage of his land, and the use of his money in trade.

How the Stewardship Was Carried Out, verses 16-18. The servants who received five and two talents respectively lost no time in trading with them and doubling each its amount, but the man who received one talent hid it in the earth. It was a common practice in the East to bury money for safekeeping, but his master wanted increase as well as safety.

The Two Stewards Rewarded, verses 19-23. After a long time the master returned and the servants made their reports. "Well done, good and faithful servant," he said to the man who had doubled his five talents. "I will set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." "Come and share your master's feast," is Moffatt's translation.

The One Steward Punished, verses 24-30. "Lord, I knew that thou art a hard austere, Lord, 19:21 man," said he who had received one talent, "reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not scatter." He uses proverbial expressions to describe an unscrupulous, grasping man. "It is all work and no pay," in his master's service, "his master takes all the increase and gives the laborer no share in the reward," he thus says, "And I was afraid," he continued, "and went away and hid thy talent in the earth; thou hast thine own way."

"Thou wicked and slothful servant!" exclaimed his master. "You call me hard. I call you a churl!" (A. B. Bruce). "Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee," Luke 19:22. "Thou knewest (didst think) that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I did not scatter; thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, that at my coming I should have received back mine own with interest." Turning to the men who would carry out his words he said: "Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath the ten talents." They gave voice to a general principle which, hard and inexorable, is always true: "Unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away." No better interpretation of the seeming paradox in the last part of this statement could be found than the words of Aristotle: "He who hath this or that, and makes no use of it, may not improperly be said to have it and not to have it."

Big Business For Barbers

Results In Many Shaves In Italy

The beard had been approaching an abrupt end in Italy recently as a result of Il Duce's suddenly expressed disapproval of such facial appendages. Business was booming for barbers as Fascists streamed into their shops to have their whiskers shorn off.

It was all said to have started when Mussolini, who is always clean shaven told General Attilio Turzilli, commander of the black shirt militia, that his beard was getting gray.

"You are no longer a lion," he was reported to have told the general. "You are old, and your whiskers are getting gray. You had better have them cut."

The Island Of Luzon

The yen for distant lands was stronger than ever in the minds of several after hearing of the Island of Luzon from Rev. N. H. Paquette, recently returned from the Philippines. There, unemployment is unknown because nobody works hard. Houses can be built for $5. There is no church collection and no prohibition. The reason for this is that millions keep up the church and nobody drinks, the minister said.

Chinese Farmers Lose Heavily

Another old Turkish custom is to go. This is the "kafes," literally meaning "cages," but actually applied to the close wooden lattices which cover the windows of the women's apartments in Turkish houses. Their object to conceal the women from the gaze of men. But the Constantinople authorities have decided that, like the veil, it must go. Reasons of hygiene are given, as it is stated that the wooden shutters kept out the light and air.

Mothers adopt Vicks Colds-Control Plan

Helps the Whole Family to Enjoy Greater Freedom from Colds

Doubly welcome to mothers is news that the makers of Vicks VapoRub have perfected a Plan for Better Control of Colds—to help reduce the number, duration and dangers of colds. Vicks Plan is introduced along with Vicks Vapo-nol, the remarkable new aid in preventing colds—companion product to Vicks VapoRub, the modern method of treating colds. The Plan includes simple, easy-to-follow rules of health—to build resistance to colds.

TRIAL OFFER BY LOCAL DRUGGISTS

Get these two Vicks products and use them as directed in Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. Full details of the Plan are given in each package of Vicks Vapo-nol and Vicks VapoRub. Unless you are delighted with results, your druggist is authorized to refund your money.

BRIEFLY, HOW VICKS PLAN WORKS:

• TO HELP PREVENT COLDS

At that first stuffy feeling, that first nasal irritation or sneeze, quick!—Vicks Vapo-nol—just a few drops up each nostril. Especially designed for nose and upper throat—where most colds start—Vapo-nol stimulates the functions which Nature has provided—in the nose—to prevent colds and to throw off colds in their early stages. Used in time, Vapo-nol helps to avoid many colds entirely.

• TO HELP SHORTEN A COLD

If a cold has already developed, apply Vicks VapoRub at bedtime. VapoRub acts directly through the skin like a poultice or plaster, while its medicated vapors—released by body heat—are inhaled direct to inflamed air-passages. This double direct action loosens phlegm—soothes irritated membranes—eases difficult breathing—helps break congestion. Often, by morning, the worst of the cold is over.

THE TENDERFOOT

By GEORGE B. BODNET

Author of "The Coronado Trail," "The Canyon Trail," Etc.

SYNOPSIS

"You've fallen heir to a half-share in plenty of trouble," the lawyer told Gerald Keene. "The Broken Spur has been systematically looting the ranch, and old Joe Carr, your partner, is drinking himself into rags."

But Keene decided to see what was happening for himself—not as Gerald Keene, half owner of the Hour-Glass Ranch, but as Duro Stone, tenderfoot, in a Montgomery Ward window.

Old Kane, desert rat and huckster promoter, in no way returning to Duro and Steve Goddard, owners of the Broken Spur ranch, who had grubbed him, of his discovery of a rich gold mine, and shows samples of the ore. He sees Broken Spur men rustling Hour-glass cattle and protests against it.

Steve Goddard and Sam Dustin, fearing the old promoter might tell others the things he has seen to do to the branding of Carr's cattle, plot to get him to show them the location of the mine and then to kill him.

Gerald Keene, dressed in ridiculous cowboy costume, arrives at the Hour-glass ranch and is hired as a cowboy by Joe Carr. The impersonation of a tenderfoot is successful, and he is accepted as such by the other occupants of the bunkhouse.

(Now Go On With The Story)

"You see I ain't done much real cow-handing. I was livin' in town and I got me a little bit o' money. I learnt what I could from a few books I read an' then I come West to learn the business. That's how come I was hired."

"Huh! Year . . . I . . . We see . . . I That's fine . . . Baines took in the creaking newness of boots and clothing, the chummy equipment on the pony and he grinned into his hand. "You see you've got three notches on your gun," he said, with a grin at the others. "Where'd you buy it?"

"I bought it before I started West. All the books said that a notch is cut on the handle for every man who's been killed."

"Great God all mighty," said Baines, all at once. "You mean you've killed three men? In Chicago with a machine gun I reckon."

"Nop. I done it with an automobile. . . . I got all three of 'em at once. It was just like killin' quail."

Ask Mother—She Knows

Mother cook this medicine before and after the babies came! It gave her more strength and energy when she was nervous and run-down. . . . Keep her on the job all through the Change. No wonder she recommends it.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

W. N. U. 3073

They was all settin' when I hit 'em. You see I was comin' down hill at the machine round at the roadside. They was playin', damned careless just like you was when I rode up and they was talkin' a lot o' damn fool talk same as you. . . . Bo . . . I killed 'em. . . .

At that even silent Lee Baines said:

"Oh, let him alone," he said, grinning. "You'll get nothing out of him."

In this manner did Duro Stone come to the Hour-glass ranch.

The bunk-house didn't seem that bad. Carr, the pretty, red-headed daughter of old Joe Carr, saw the new arrival. She was mixing a mint julep for old Joe who was sitting in his front office with his game leg straight out before him on a chair when Stone arrived. She promptly took her "making" into the back office but was quite close enough to hear what took place.

"I'm hearin' tell you want new men," quoth Stone. "I'm lookin' for a job."

"Get so!" demanded Carr. "What kind of a job?"

"Mostly eatin' with a little un-official drinkin' throwed in. I don't mind some ridin' on a nice family horse. I kin split wood and haul water an'."

"By God," said Carr, "that's more'n most can do who hire out as cowhands. Know anything about cattle or is that quit all bought from a catalogue?"

"Not all of it," said Stone, grinning. "I won the spurs in a poker game."

"You're hired. Get back over to the bunk-house and kill the first coyote who tries to play practical jokes on you."

Edith came back into the room giggling. She had never seen any one just like that before.

"Who in the world was that, Daddy?" she asked. "He looks like a walking advertisement for Christmas presents."

"Looks like he'll do for you to play with, Honey, when he ain't workin'. We're sure out of luck when we have to hire men like that. He ought to do to steel fences and leave the other men free for regular work."

When Frank Crews gets back send him in to me, will you, please?"

Edith gave him his julep, nodded her bright head and, picking up her quilt, passed out to the bunk-house where her pony stood. She was young; distinctly more than merely pretty and she dominated every soul on the Hour-glass. As her father watched her go, his face darkened.

He had leg hurt him but, other things hurt worse and a little later, when Frank Crews came in for a chat, he found his boss and old friend in the depths. Crews did not help matters, for his dark face was darker with wrath where ordinarily it radiated good humor.

"Nothin' good, Joe," he said cryptically. "We've been combin' the back-ranges for a week an' we got maybe four hundred. Not prime stock at that."

"Spur! Sure!" said Joe Carr's tone registered utter consternation. "The beginnin' of the roundup and only four hundred calves from more'n three thousand cows!"

"Calves, hell. . . . Crews exploded. "I'm tellin' you, Joe, this four hundred is all! Cattle that's cows an' calves an' steers an' bulls, too."

"Breedin' stock an' increase. . . . Carr tried to rise but sat back with a groan of pain.

"Hell," he finally ejaculated. "That just ain't possible!"

"I know it ain't. And I know, too, where the stuff's gone but I'll be damned if I could either prove it to me or stuff or show how it was stolen. I know those damned robbers over on the Broken Spur are at the bottom of it. I know they sent two thousand head out to California two months ago to fatten for the market and I know they got seventeen dollars where we got eighty-five. They're glad to ship their cows out of the State. But we were asleep. We ought to have a man at the loading pens."

"I know. . . . I know," said old Carr placatingly. "I didn't have a man to send, as you know, and I didn't have the money to hire an extra man. I'd give a lot to pin what I know Dustin is doin' on to his card. But I can't. I wish to God we could find that man Gerald Keene. We've talked him over so damned often that I've got to sort of feel he might do us some kind o' good. I don't know but what he might."

"Huh. If you could get in touch with him, he might," conceded Crews. "Something's got to turn up."

"Yeah. Like a hot-handle when you step on the blade an' knock your foot brains out," said Carr viciously. "I got to borrow money to meet our next pay-roll. Frank, I reckon I'm busted flat. I'm sixty-five past and I've got Edith to take care of. . . . She didn't come till I was past forty."

Frank, I got to find some way to take care of her. . . .

"You needn't worry about her," said Crews, who openly adored her. "Plenty of men'd be glad to relieve you of that care. Sam Dustin, for instance."

To Speed Up Express

Trains On Streamline Plan Being Built In United States

Looking to the day when railroad express shipments may enjoy the same speed now accorded passengers by modern car construction, two full-length express trains on the stream-line plan are being built in suburban St. Charles, Mo. It is said that the American Car & Foundry Company, the builders, will have the trains ready for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad by the first of the coming year. Each train is to consist of eight cars, and the enterprise means jobs for many regular men of the construction company who have been for some time without work.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

ON WINTER NIGHTS

On winter nights I sit and dream Beside the glowing fire. Without, the wind's shrill voices scream, The snow is drifting higher. And often when I muse this way My vagrant fancies wing Again to youth's unheeding eye When lips seemed made to kiss.

When every hour was filled with joy And every day with sun, Life's sands were gold without alloy, Life's mirth was never done. Yet on this dreamy grin shadows lie That darken half its gold: How thoughtless youth went marching by, How harsh sometimes, and cold!

On winter nights I muse sometimes Beside the firelight's glow; Without, the white moon higher climbs To gleam on drifted snow, And paler than the moonlight's beam Upon the snowflakes tossed, They stand the people of my dream, Whom I have loved and lost, And then I cross that borderland Where unseen hairs are set, To say, "At last I understand." To smile, though eyes are wet.

Like Canadian Fruit

An increase of approximately 3,000,000 pounds in the exports of Canadian canned fruit during the first half of the current fiscal year compared with last year, reflects the appreciation of world epicures for Canadian fruits, says a report of the department of trade and commerce.

Little Helps For This Week

"What do the Lord thy God require of thee but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all His ways, to love Him, and to serve Him with all thy heart and soul?" Deuteronomy 10:12.

What asks our Father of His children save Justice and mercy and humility. A reasonable service of good deeds.

"Pure living tenderness to human needs. Reverence and trust, and prayer for light to see The Master's footprints in our daily ways."

No knotted scourge, nor sacrificial knife, But the calm beauty of an ordered life. Whose every breathing is unworried praise.

—J. G. Whittier.

Give up yourself to God without reserve; in singleness of heart, meeting everything that every day brings forth, as something from God that is to be received and gone through by you in such a heavenly use of it as you would suppose the holy Jesus would have done in such occurrences. This is an attainable degree of perfection.

Wought to measure our actual lot, and to fulfil it, to be with all our strength that which our lot requires and allows. What is beyond it is no calling of ours. How much peace, quiet, confidence and strength would people attain if they would go by this plain rule.—H. E. Manning.

Illicit Traffic In Narcotics

Bulgaria Said To Be Attracting All World's Scoundrels

Drug traffic under investigation at Geneva by the Opium Advisory Committee revealed sensational stories of illicit traffic in opium and narcotics in Bulgaria. Russell Pasha, Chief of the Police in Cairo, said that Bulgaria was the only big source remaining in Europe for the manufacture of narcotics and was therefore attracting all the world's scoundrels. It was stated that Bulgaria imported in 1933 material sufficient for the manufacture of twelve times the legitimate needs of the whole world, whereas in 1930 her imports were insignificant.

Remember the pictures below when you want fast relief from pain. Demand and get the method doctors prescribe—Aspirin.

Millions have found that Aspirin eases even a bad headache, neuritis or rheumatic pain often in a few minutes!

In the stomach as in the glass here, an Aspirin tablet starts to dissolve, or disintegrate, almost the instant it touches moisture. It begins "taking hold" of your pain practically as soon as you swallow it. Equally important, Aspirin is safe. For scientific tests show this: Aspirin does not harm the heart.

Remember these two points: Aspirin Speed and Aspirin Safety. And, see that you get ASPIRIN. It is made in Canada, and all druggists have it. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every Aspirin tablet.

Get tin of 12 tablets or economical bottle of 24 or 100 at any druggist's.

Why Aspirin Works So Fast

Drop an Aspirin tablet in a glass of water. Note that BIFFORE it touches the bottom, it is disintegrating.

What happens in these glass happens in your stomach—ASPIRIN tablets start "taking hold" of pain a few minutes after taking.

IN 3 SECONDS BY STOP WATCH

An Aspirin tablet starts to disintegrate and go to work.

Just arrived at the Library, "In The Steps of The Master" by H. V. Metcalfe, author of "In Search of Scouting," etc. This is a faithful account of a journey made to the Holy Land in search of towns and villages associated with the Life and Ministry of Jesus Christ.

M. L. Forster made a trip last Thursday to places south of the Park.

Annual District meeting of I.O. G. F. was held in Wainwright last Monday November 19th. Delegates from this area were attended with the following results: After the business was completed a dainty lunch was served by the local lodge.

Listen to this folks. The Harmany Minstrels are returning to the Elite Theatre on Friday December 7th. Keep the date open; it will be worth your while.

The very fine weather experienced during the early days of the month was brought to a close on Saturday night when nature dropped her soft mantle of beautiful white snow over Mother Earth. Sunday presented all the appearance of Christmas, with a sharp south of frost in the air and snow to a depth of three inches.

The roof of the town hall was fittingly trimmed during the past week with a nice large town ball, the work being done by Mr. W. S. Goulet, and assistants. Needless to say it improved the appearance of the building when viewed from a distance with the bell in view.

Wainwright Junior Hockey Club and friends had a pleasant time at a dance in the Elite Theatre on Friday night last. Besides dancing a short entertainment was provided following a turkey lunch. We understand the boys added a small amount to their treasury after paying expenses from the proceeds.

Viewing the south end of our Main Street, one must be impressed with the improvement thereon created by the brush of an artist called Mr. Saunders. Billing's building now presents rather a "Broadway" appearance with its fancy sign—possibly more striking than many of the other new signs in town. The artist's sign brush has also embellished the approach of Graham's Store, Forster — Bowen location, Wainwright Meat Market, Wright's Harness Shop—and many other places along Main Street.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, who departed this life, November 21, 1933. God is good, He gives us strength To bear the heavy cross, He is the only one who knows, How bitter is our loss. We miss you at a thousand turns, Along life's weary way, For life is not the same to us, Since you were called away. Mrs. Ross and George.
